Hereby we present to you the board of the Economic Business weeks Tilburg 2022. These five people have made sure you can orientate on, prepare for and seize your future career.

To make sure this year's EBT will be a success once again we need you as well! You can find all the relevant information for your participation in the event in this magazine and on our website.

The board of the Economic Business weeks Tilburg 2022 wishes you a valuable and joyful experience!

Prefaces

Dear student,

On behalf of the board of the Economic Business weeks Tilburg 2022, I am proud to share with you this year's magazine. In this magazine you will find all the information that you will need to successfully prepare yourself for the 24th edition of the Economic Business weeks Tilburg.

Continuing on what our predecessors accomplished over the years, we are certain that this year's edition will be more valuable than ever! From renewing our website, to strengthening our collaboration with Tilburg University. All to ensure that you, as a student, will be given the key to successfully unlock your future and to give you the opportunity to find your next employer!

Therefore, I don't want to hold you up any longer. Registrations are open now, so more than 80 companies, participating in more than 120 activities are waiting for you to register! We are looking forward to welcoming you in April!

Jorg van Zutphen

Chairman Economic Business weeks Tilburg 2022

The EBT and your future

We are proud that the Economic Business weeks Tilburg (EBT) is with 1,500 students the largest career event of Tilburg University and one of the largest recruitment events in The Netherlands. Students of every field of study in Economics, Management and Behavioural Sciences get in touch with more than 80 companies operating within all sorts of sectors. This event offers students a unique opportunity to orient themselves on their future career, to find an internship, or to gain insights from potential employers. After another year in which the pandemic still persists, we are thankful for the organization's perseverance and hard work. And again you all prove that flexibility is a characteristic of an entrepreneurial mindset!

The world is changing fast and has to face a lot of problems like climate change and a pandemic. Therefore, understanding society and connecting to society, to people, is essential for science and students. Powerful collaboration with (local) governments, social partners, citizens, knowledge institutes, enterprises and companies is necessary more than ever.

Therefore, I warmly recommend the EBT to students. Get inspired, prepare and challenge yourself!

Wim van de Donk

Rector Magnificus and President of the Board, Tilburg University

General Information

Activities

Registration

On January 31st the registrations for the Economic Business weeks Tilburg 2022 will open up! Find out exactly how to register on page 73. The general registration deadline is February 17th, 23:59. If you want to participate in an activity with CV selection, make sure that you have uploaded your regular CV and an anonymous version of your CV before this deadline. Note that the registration deadline for the CV & LinkedIn Checks is already at February 10th, 23:59 as the checks will take place before the EBT. In the first week of April, your personal schedule can be found in your inbox, on our website and in the EBtilburg app!

CV selection

To be able to participate in an activity with CV selection you need to upload your regular CV and an anonymous version of your CV to your profile at www.EBTilburg.nl. To join the Consultancy Experience, you are also required to fill in in your average grade (GPA). You will be notified for which activities you are selected through your personal schedule.

Costs

Below you can find an overview of the costs of participating in specific events during the EBT. You will not be charged for an activity you are not selected for and thus cannot participate in. For the Company Days this only applies if you do not participate in any other activities during this week.

Program Information

Relevance

Most of the activities during the EBT are based on CV selection. These activities are open for everyone. However, 3rd year Bachelor and Master students are most likely to be selected by a company. We also offer several activities without CV selection, for these activities the first come, first served principle applies. These type of activities are also very valuable for 1st and 2nd year students. Below you can find an overview of which activities are most relevant to you based on your year of study, and what the selection criteria are for each activity.

Success Stories

Many (former) students have found an internship, traineeship or starters position through their participation in the Economic Business weeks Tilburg. Read about two EBT alumni's experiences below!

Gijs van de Wetering

M&A Specialist - Blacktrace
BSc. Economics & Business Economics and MSc. Finance

While still doubting between M&A and asset management, I participated in the EBT to explore various career paths. With its comprehensive and diverse set of companies, the EBT is an excellent platform for students to meet their future employers and experience different company cultures. During Blacktrace's company presentation, the team explained their day-to-day activities, company culture, and job opportunities. But, more importantly, they showed that M&A offers the most appealing path for a graduate like myself. Now, 4 years later, I look forward to meeting you and discussing what it's like to work at Blacktrace during our presentation and interviews.

Manon Janssen

Graduate intern Assurance - PwC
BSc International Business Administration
& MSc Accountancy

Choosing my master's degree wasn't difficult, but when I started thinking about where I wanted to work next, I started having a lot of doubts. For me the EBT 2021 really helped me to get to know different companies. I did not only learn about the work activities, but also about the work environment. Especially work environment was very important to me and was determining to my choice. During the EBT I participated in the Big Four Accountancy Experience. That is where I met PwC, where I am currently doing an internship. My participation in the Economic Business weeks Tilburg 2021 was very successful and I believe that it can be a great opportunity for any student to find an internship or even a starters position.

- Your (mobile) phone number
- Your email address
- Your Social Media
- Recognizable photo's
- Any other information that might make the CV selection process more subjective or allows readers to contact or identify you.

CV and LinkedIn Checks

Tuesday, February 15th

CV Checks

Your curriculum vitae is one of the most important documents when applying for an internship, traineeship or starters position and therefore it is crucial that its content is relevant and complete. During the CV Checks on February 15th, you will have the possibility to receive feedback and ask questions in order to create an outstanding CV. A professional will check your CV during a 15-minute long session.

LinkedIn Checks

Recruiters increasingly use LinkedIn to find new applicants. Creating a representative and professional profile increases your chances when applying for an internship, traineeship or a job. During the LinkedIn Checks, experts will provide you with useful tips on how to optimize your profile and show you how you can stand out from the competition. These checks also take 15 minutes.

Weighing Out the Options: Making the Decisions that Drive our Future

General information

The Business night is the grand opening of the EBT. The evening aims at broadening students' vision by sharing inspiring stories. With prominent speakers and leaders in their areas of expertise, the Business Night is a unique opportunity to go beyond academic knowledge and get inspired by the speakers' diverse experiences. The event will take place in the evening of April 5th.

Program information

We are delighted to welcome another inspiring and prestigious selection of speakers from a wide range of different industries. Among others, Jacques van den Broek (CEO Randstad) and Jeroen Davidson (CEO EY Netherlands) will be speaking during this evening. Keep a close eye on our website and socials to find out which other speakers will attend as well.

This year's theme revolves around decision making. Corporate decisions don't just affect a company's future, but shape our society itself. The decisions made by top business executives can determine the future of millions of dollars and lives. Hence, it is important to understand the role ethics plays in profit driven decisions. Furthermore, as risk-taking is often considered a key to success, it is also interesting to see how executives approach risky decisions with lives in the balance. Join us this year, to gain these insights, as we travel into the minds of leaders of the business world!

CoolBlue Case Day

Wednesday, April 6th

Together, we work hard every day to make customers happy. By being honest and open and thinking with them. For example, we don't hide our customer service phone number at the bottom of our website. Our Terms and Conditions are written in a way even your ten-year-old niece can understand. And we even deliver on Sundays.

General information

During the Case Day on April 6th you will spend an entire day with Coolblue to get to know the company, its activities and the career opportunities it has to offer.

Program information

During the Coolblue Case Day, you will experience what it is to work with one of the largest e-commerce companies in the Netherlands. For over 6 years, Coolblue has been delivering their laundry machines, dryers, refrigerators, and other appliances using our in-house delivery services. In 2018 we introduced timeslots to our delivery service, this way our customers do not need to take their entire day off just to receive their package; quite convenient, right? Will you help us improve our delivery service with timeslots? We hope you do so at the Case Days of the Economic Business weeks Tilburg 2022!

Heineken Case Day

Thursday, April 7th

We build true human connections and break down barriers, because we believe great moments of shared experiences are the best in life.

We are inspired by consumers to brew the best beers and extend that same passion to all of our brands, products and activities.

We are proud of our family history and Dutch heritage and derive from them our entrepreneurial spirit that takes us to every corner of the world.

We are brand builders. The Heineken® brand defines and unites us while our many local, regional and global brands make our portfolio diverse and unique.

People are at the heart of our company. We see our strength in trust, diversity and progress.

We stand by our values: passion for quality, enjoyment of life, respect for people and for the planet.

We always advocate for responsible consumption. We are committed to our communities and strive to consistently improve the impact we make on the planet.

We work with our customers and partners to grow together and seek to win with integrity and fairness.

And we are convinced that by staying true to these commitments, we create value for our shareholders.

WE ARE HEINEKEN.

General information

Join Heineken during their Case Day. Participate in a lunch, presentation, case discussion and end the day by enjoying a well-deserved Heineken beer at the informal drink.

Program information

During the Heineken Case Day, you will experience what it is to work with the number two brewer in the world, which operates in over 70 countries. The case will be about a local beer of Heineken. With your team you will brainstorm about the positioning of the product. It is important to take several aspects into account, such as: Sales, Trade Marketing, Marketing, Finance and route to market.

Shell Case Day

Friday, April 8th

Shell is an international energy company with expertise in the exploration, production, refining and marketing of oil and natural gas, and the manufacturing and marketing of chemicals.

We use advanced technologies and take an innovative approach to help build a sustainable energy future. We also invest in power, including from low-carbon sources such as wind and solar; and new fuels for transport, such as advanced biofuels and hydrogen.

Shell's purpose is to power progress together with more and cleaner energy solutions. We believe that rising standards of living for a growing global population are likely to continue to drive demand for energy, including oil and gas, for years to come. At the same time, the need to tackle climate change means there is a global transition under way to a low-carbon energy system.

Powering Progress is underpinned by our core values of honesty, integrity and respect for people, and our focus on safety. These include our commitment to doing business in an ethical and transparent way.

Our people are essential to the successful delivery of the Shell strategy and to sustaining business performance over the long term. Performing competitively in the evolving energy landscape requires competent and empowered people working safely together across Shell.

We believe that diverse teams led by inclusive leaders deliver better safety and business performance.

Shell is changing to be more focused, more resilient and more competitive – not just for the energy system of today, but for the energy system of the future.

General information

During the Case Day on April 9th you will spend an entire day with Shell to get to know the company, its activities and the career opportunities it has to offer.

Program information

During the Shell Case Day, you will experience what it is to work with one of the largest energy companies in the world. The case will be about finding new business opportunities such as biofuels, hydrogen and electricity generated by solar and wind power. You will get an insight in one of Shell's newly emerging businesses and get a chance to experience what we are working on day-to-day.

Training Day

Monday, April 11th

General information

On April 11th, the Dutch Students Track and International Students Track of the Training Day will take place at the Willem II Conference Center. During this event you will get the opportunity to obtain skills which will be useful for both your future career and personal life. A wide variety of workshops is offered throughout the day to make sure you can develop the competencies that are most important to you. These include workshops in personal development, application, and more. Find out exactly which training sessions are provided on the next pages!

Dutch Students Track

Note: only open to Dutch speaking students.

The Dutch Students Track consists of two rounds. The first round takes place in the morning of the day. After the first round you can take a lunch break. In the afternoon another round of training sessions will be held.

When you register for the DST you are required to attend both rounds!

International Students Track

Note: only open to international students.

Are you an international student and eager to develop your soft skills? At the Training Day several training sessions are offered in English. These trainings range from a specific session focusing on the challenges that an international student could face when searching for a job in the Netherlands, to more general topics. The International Students Track consists of one round of training sessions.

Dutch Students Track

Assessments | LTP

Organizations often use assessments for the selection and development of (new) employees. Where it concerns junior positions and traineeships, mainly online assessments are used.

Lisa Peters (LTP) provides a workshop on online assessments during the EBT. Participants receive practical tips, background information and they can practice with intelligence tests (under time pressure).

- How does an online assessment work?
- How do I prepare for an online assessment?

Case Training | Qompas

How do you distinguish yourself from all other students? How do you present yourself (online) to an employer? During this training, we give you insights into what your competencies are based on interactive exercises; how to use these competencies in your resume and motivation letter and how to incorporate them into a strong pitch. You'll also learn the following:

- How to make a unique resume?
- How to write a targeted motivation letter?
- What questions can you expect from a recruiter using the STARR method?

After this workshop you will think about applying in a different way and you will be able to immediately put what you have learned into practice!

Dealing with Resistance | Ad Mutare

You encounter it on a daily basis in your life and at work; people don't want to do anything or they don't agree with what you say. In other words: people experience resistance. A phenomenon as old as humanity itself. During this training you will be handed tools on how to deal with people who show resistance. These tools give you insight and this enables you to choose an influencing style.

Effective Collaboration - The Key to Success | Work-On

Building a successful career(path) is rather challenging. You bring skills and talents to the table, but surely also your many flaws and blind spots. Achieving success in the modern workfield depends largely on your ability to collaborate effectively. And effective collaboration is a skill you have yet to discover because it's hardly comparable with the cooperative working you're taught throughout school and university. So start developing this critical skill right now.

Find Your Why | FrisseBlikken

During this training we work with your personal why. We all have a reason that gets us out of bed in the morning and this training helps you zoom on in why you do what you do. Through a number of exercises based upon the why-how-what theory by Simon Sinek we help you find your personal why.

Five Golden Rules of Communication | Krauthammer

How can you present yourself in order to make impact on your job interviewer and your colleagues? How can you influence others positively with your own behavior? In this training we are going to work on the vital tools of communication. These communications tools help you to understand the needs of your stakeholder in order to get hired for the job and to fulfill a fruitful career. When we know the other and the context, we know what we need to say and do in order to be successful. This training is a start of a journey of personal development.

How To Prepare For an Interview | Brightstone

Suppose you are invited for an interview, very nice! But, be aware of the fact that getting your dream job starts from here. A good job interview is essential, but also very difficult. During this workshop, we take you through an interactive session that revolves around conducting a good job interview. Through exercises, sharing of best practices and tips on online job interviews, we will help you get that dream job.

Master in Negotiation | In2Talent

Within In2Talent, the development of soft skills is high on the agenda. Because we believe being aware of your competencies is how you can make a difference, in all kinds of professions and definitely within procurement. #how? During our workshop we guide you through the do's and don'ts of a tough negotiation. This will allow you to see what the impact of the use of soft skills can be.

Masterclass Preparing for Success | Dutch Training Professionals

Winning mindset, Skills that work and Effective habits. This masterclass will help you to prepare for successful behavior in your future career. You are invited to an interactive session which provides you new insights in developing personal mindset, skills and habits. We follow the metaphor of a boxer training and preparing for a fight. How do you collaborate in sparring? How do you lead or follow? How do you motivate yourself when encountering setback? What skills do work in the ring and in the workplace? How do you create and maintain effective habits? What can you do to recover and learn? Are you ready to rumble?

Online Branding | Joust

Networking. Everyone talks about it and everybody seems to know how to do it. It's a good way to get information about the job market, openings and possibilities. But how can you effectively network online? How do they see your profile? This workshop provides an insight into the basic principles of online networking via LinkedIn. You will get hands-on tips and tricks on creating a professional profile and network. Optimizing your profile can make all the difference! Want to know how? Visit our workshop!

Presenting With Impact | Door Training

How to present yourself, your organisation or a new idea with impact. Preparation and confidence is key. After this training you will be able to present with impact.

How? You will learn to structure your story, practice on your presentation skills and be able to activate and interact with your audience. Participate and you will make an impact with your story! See you on the Training Day.

Procrastination Prevention: Start Now! | Talent&Pro

As a student you probably know exactly what we mean when we say stop procrastinating. Whether it pertains to something on your to do list that actually IS time consuming or that small chore that just seems to get bigger and bigger every time you think about it. Our workshop on procrastination prevention provides the insights that help you break the pattern and end the crippling habit of procrastinating. We will show you that it is indeed a learned habit. And if you can learn it, you can UNLEARN it. Discover the psychology behind procrastination and develop the tools that help you act instead of sitting back.

Skills of the Future - Get Ahead and Stay Ahead | Work-On

Think about it. Your great grandparents witnessed the invention of the automobile and the moon landing in their time, but were able to have a single career with a single employer for most of their lives. Our world has accelerated ever since and that is especially so for the modern workfield. You are studying today what can be an obsolete career path in a decade or two. There is no way of knowing what the future will bring, but there are some skills that will be key in any field and every career. In this workshop you will learn which skills you should master to become a 'most wanted' employee for the rest of your career.

What to Expect From an Assessment | Interselect

In the training we want to show you all aspects of a (selection) assessment, so you can prepare for one in the future. We show you what you can expect during an assessment day (tests, simulations ('roleplay') and interviews). We are also going to practice a number of things. One of the aspects of the day is practising a simulation with an actor, so you can get a clear picture of what simulations look like and what is expected of you. We elaborate on the Big Five personality questionnaire. It is important for our assessment centres, since it indicates what qualities you have, and it also indicates possible limitations of your developability."

Work Environment Expectations | Ad Mutare

What does your future employer expect of a new, young employee? What skills and especially, which behavior? What is their view on flexible working or parttime work? What CV are firms looking for? On the other hand, what do you have to offer? What distinguishes you from others? What role do you want to take on within a team? In this training we try to bring these two together. Are you ready?

Ad Mutare

ad Mutare is Latin for Change to...! This name has been chosen since every form of training and coaching is letting go, creating space for other perspectives and moving from there towards something "different". Change is not only a matter of time, knowledge, ability and behavior, but also of willpower, decisiveness and courage. Looking to your past in the form of nurture & nature, your contemporary environment and your future.

All previous facets give you the greatest possible certainty that change is possible, for you as well! ad Mutare has the following coaching & training: personal - team - executive coaching and change-sales/advice-management training.

Sustainability Symposium

Wednesday Evening, April 20th

The Future of Food

General information

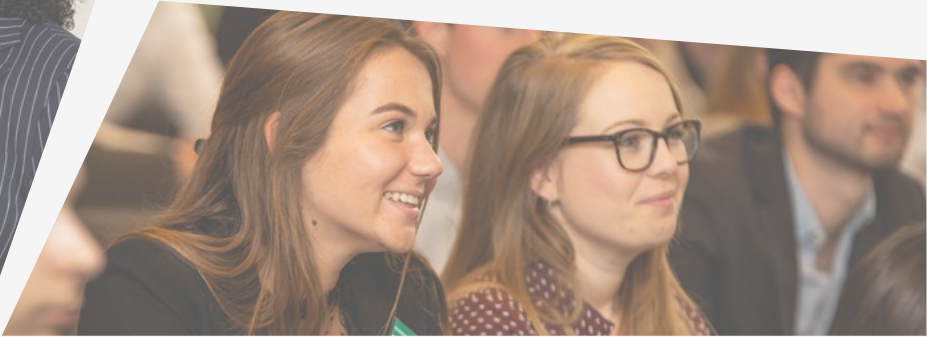

This year, the second edition of the Sustainability Symposium will be organized during the EBT! During this event interesting speakers from different companies will give us insights in how sustainability can be incorporated within businesses. Business practices across all industries have a certain impact on society and the environment. How can companies shape their business model and behaviour to make this impact positive? At this event, the participating companies aim to answer that question.

Program information

This night's theme will be the The Future of Food. More specifically; how can we feed a growing world population in a sustainable manner?

To kick-off the symposium, the participating speakers will introduce themselves and their company. We will hear about their vision, current practices, and goals. Afterwards the speakers will engage in a discussion about the opportunities and challenges concerning the sustainability of our food systems. Finally, we will have a Q&A session in which you can ask your questions!

NewForesight

NewForesight is a strategy consulting firm dedicated to driving change. We partner with leading clients from the private, public and not-for-profit sectors who want to find structural solutions to some of the most critical sustainability challenges of our generation.

that lead to structural change. We have an extensive experience in many sectors including: cocoa, coffee and palm oil. Our work is not limited to specific sectors; we experience that sustainable market transformation requires tackling similar challenges, both at global and regional levels.

Our mission is to find market-driven and systemic solutions that have an impact and create value. Ultimately, we bring the right people together, challenge established thinking and shape coalitions

We capture the sustainability challenges in models that help us to understand the wider context and develop solutions for our clients. Due to their insights and applicability, these models are now taught at business schools & universities.

The Protein Brewery

The Protein Brewery (TPB) is located in Breda, The Netherlands, was founded in 2020 and its team currently consists of 30 enthusiastic persons. TPB contributes to a more sustainable world by developing novel ways of producing food proteins, deploying fermentation technologies using locally produced, non allergic and water efficient crops. By doing this, animal based food production can be reduced drastically. TPB contributes to reduce global warming, animal suffering and nitrogen emissions while providing a solution to the need of feeding a growing population towards 10 billion people in 2050. The ingredients produced by TPB are neutral in color, taste and odor, being therefore applicable in a broad variety of consumer products.

Jumbo Supermarkten

Jumbo is a family company and enjoys a rich history of successful entrepreneurship. As it currently stands, Jumbo boasts almost 700 supermarkets, 8 food-markets and a thriving online order and delivery service.

Additionally, Jumbo started with the new convenience store concept in which elements of the regular Jumbo shops, food-market and La Place restaurants are combined. Jumbo's goal herein is to make tasty and healthy food readily available for everyone. Jumbo has a specific formula meaning best service, largest assortment and lowest price, which enables customers to trust Jumbo's "7 Promises". In 2009, Jumbo took over the supermarket chain Super de Boer and in 2012, C1000 (the even bigger supermarket chain) followed. In 2016, Jumbo took over the food service formula La Place. In 2018, the takeover of EMTÉ was completed; and through these takeovers, Jumbo was able to transform from local supermarket company to a nationwide and leading retailer in Holland.
